TATTVILLE WNS DECIDING GAME

Jewett City Loses Final Game of Series Before Large Crowd

Score 10 to 8—Borough Five Shows Poor Form in Shooting Baskets.

Tatville trimmed Jewett City in the third game of the series Thursday night in the Junior League City, before the largest crowd of the season. The score was 10 to 8. The game was not so exciting as the first two, but it gave no chance for unnecessary roughness. Jewett City was not up to their form in shooting. In the last half Jewett City played right around the visiting five, but they could not get their eyes on the basket. Daly and Blake of Jewett City and Vickery and Pratt were the outstanding stars.

The lineup: Jewett City. Blair Right Forward. White Left Forward. Vickery Center. Pratt Right Guard. Murphy Right Guard. Hasker Left Guard.

Baskets, for Tatville, Blair 2, White 1, Vickery 1, Pratt 1; for Jewett City, C. Benjamin 1, Daly 1, L. Heureux 1; for Tatville, Blair 3, White 2, Murphy 1, Vickery 1, White 2; Jewett City, Blake 2, W. Benjamin 3, Barry 1.

In the preliminary game the Tatville seconds were defeated by the Jewett records 14 to 7.

Englewoods Start Season. Manager McKnight has reorganized his team which made such a showing in amateur baseball last year. The first tryout for recruits will be Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Many of the recruits will be wearing an Englewood uniform this season and McKnight expects to give the public a good brand of baseball, even surpassing that of last year.

Baseball Results. At New Orleans: Cincinnati Nationals 2, Cleveland Americans 8.

Flynn Outfought Smith. New York, March 30.—Porky Flynn, the Boston heavyweight, outfought Gunboat Smith of this city in a ten-round bout here tonight. Flynn weighed 195 pounds and Smith 183.

George Anderson, Federal league outfielder, has been sent to the Omaha club of the Western league by Cincinnati.

Keating Overweight Last Year. At this time last season he was 20 pounds over weight and made no serious effort to take it off. The necessity of proving his sincerity and ability has made a different player of him.

It has always been a question how good a pitcher Keating could be, for he has never performed under conditions that were a real test. Some smart baseball men have said that he would be a second Ed Walsh as a spitball pitcher, since he had the size and length. He hurt his back two years ago, but in training this spring he found that the injury had healed entirely and gave him no further trouble.

Keating will now have a chance to show just how good he is. If he comes through to the expectations that have been held out for him he will make a valuable addition to the pitching staff of the American league. On the showing that he has made recently Manager Donovan plans to team him with Caldwell and Fisher as one of his three main dependencies.

SPORTING NOTES.

Ty Cobb will join the Detroit team Saturday.

Leslie Mann is back in the game with the Cubs after a short lay-off due to a lame ankle.

Frank Webber, all the way from Mamaroneck, N. Y., has been signed as a pitcher by the Hartford club.

President Draper and Manager Sheehan of the Providence club will give a banquet next week by Providence fans.

Manager Bill Clymer of the Louisville club has released infielder Midkiff to the Memphis club of the Southern association.

The St. Louis Cardinals and Cincinnati club are willing to take Lew Wendell, Ex-Pittsburgh catcher, from the Giants, but there is little chance.

Otis C. Lawry, shortstop and captain of the University of Maine team, will be given a trial by the Athletics in June. He has led his team in batting the past three years.

Eddie Eays, former Twin-State league pitcher has signed with Providence. He is intended to try for the outfield this season, though he will be called upon occasionally to pitch.

The Portland club has secured outfielder Brown and Third Baseman Isaacs from Toronto in exchange for Catcher Mike Hayden. Both men were in the Canadian League last year.

Outfielder Davy Robertson will report to the Giants April 5 at Norfolk, Va. His doctor advised him against going to Maine because of an injured leg. Robertson now says the leg is strong again.

Harry Lord is willing to assume the management of the Lowell club, but he has declined to buy into the club. Lord managed the Buffalo Bisons last season. He stands a good chance of landing as Lowell's manager.

Willie Keeler has signed to manage the Altoona club of the Pennsylvania State league. Other managers in that league are Fred Jacklisch at York, George Cockill at Harrisburg, Arthur Devlin at Lebanon, Jimmy Sheppard at Reading, Lew Ritter at Lancaster and Mike Donlin.

Andy Roach declared a Pittsburgh stranger offered him $10,000 for his Lowell franchise with the understanding that the club be transferred to Fitchburg. Roach answered that he will only go on condition that the club remain in Lowell. The Fitchburg manager asked Roach to keep his name a secret.

DISCARDED SCHEDULE MAY BE TAKEN BACK.

Eastern League Managers May Reconsider Season's Programme.

If schedule experts hunting for that $100 offered by the Eastern league at its meeting in Worcester for the coming season have started out to compile their documents, they are going to a great deal of labor for nothing, according to a story that is gaining considerable credence down New England way. A schedule for a 10-club league is about the toughest thing imaginable to map out and it there are any schedule-makers who have taken the Eastern league offer at all seriously, it looks as though they
